Nature of Agreement

19. This Agreement is not intended to be and shall not be treated as anything other than a management agreement relating to the conduct and operation of the business of each Trust, with the rights of the parties hereto being none other than the rights ascribed to them hereunder. Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed in any way or for any purpose to constitute a party hereto a partner or agent of any other party hereto in the conduct of any business or otherwise or a member of a general partnership, limited partnership, joint venture, corporation, company or joint stock company. Except as provided in this Agreement, the Manager shall have no authority to bind, obligate or represent any Trust.

During the term of this Agreement, the Manager and its affiliates may act for and render similar management, administrative, consulting and other services to other persons (whether or not their investment objectives, strategies and criteria are similar to those of the Trust), including without limitation any other fund or funds that are established for the purpose of making investments parallel to the Trust, so long as its services to the Trust are not impaired thereby and in accordance with the Manager's compliance policies adopted from time to time. The Manager shall act on a basis which is fair and reasonable to the Trust and agrees that its investment decisions for the Trust will be made independently of those made for its other clients and independently of its own investments. If the Trust and one or more of the other clients of the Manager are engaged in the purchase or sale of the same security, the Manager agrees that such transactions will be effected on an equitable basis. The Manager and its officers and employees shall devote so much of their time to the affairs of the Trust as in the judgment of the Manager the conduct of its business shall reasonably require, and neither the Manager nor its affiliates shall be obligated to do or perform any act or thing in connection with the business of the Trust not expressly set forth herein.
