Management Discussion of Fund Performance Portland Canadian Balanced Fund

This management report of fund performance contains financial highlights, but does not contain either interim or annual financial statements of the investment fund. You can get a copy of the interim or annual financial statements at your request, and at no cost, by calling 1-888-710-4242, by writing to us at info@portlandic.com or 1375 Kerns Road, Suite 100, Burlington, ON L7P 4V7 or visiting our website at www.portlandic.com or SEDAR at www.sedar.com.

Securityholders may also contact us using one of these methods to request a copy of the investment fund's proxy voting policies and procedures, proxy voting disclosure record, or quarterly portfolio disclosure.

The views of Portland Investment Counsel Inc. (the Manager) contained in this report are as of March 31, 2019 and this report is not intended to provide legal, accounting, tax or specific investment advice. Views, portfolio holdings and allocations may have changed subsequent to this date. For current information please contact us using the above methods. All references to performance relate to Series F units. The performance of other units may be different than that of the Series F units due to differing fees.

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND STRATEGIES

The investment objective of the Portland Canadian Balanced Fund (the Fund) is to provide positive long-term total returns, consisting of both income and capital gains by investing primarily in a portfolio of fixed income securities and Canadian equities. The Fund seeks to provide income and capital growth by investing in a diversified portfolio of common equities, preferred shares, income securities and exchange-traded funds (ETFs). The Fund may invest up to 49% in foreign securities in a manner consistent with its investment objective.

RISK

The overall risk level has not changed for the Fund and remains as discussed in the prospectus. Investors should be able to accept a low to medium level of risk and plan to hold for the medium to long term.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

For the six months ended March 31, 2019, the Fund had a return of 1.2%. For the same period, the Fund's Blended Benchmark (which is a composite consisting of 60% of the return of the S&P/TSX Composite Total Return Index (the Index) and 40% of the total return of the iShares Core Canadian Universe Bond Index ETF TR), had a return of 3.3%. For the full period since launch of the Fund on October 31, 2012 to March 31, 2019, the Fund had an annualized return of 9.6%. For the same period, the Blended Benchmark had an annualized return of 5.6%. Unlike the Index, the Fund's return is after the deduction of its fees and expenses.

The Fund's net asset value at March 31, 2019 was $11.1 million. On a cumulative basis since its inception, the Fund has experienced both positive net sales and positive investment performance. Asset mix as at March 31, 2019 was common equities, 81.7%; preferred share ETFs, 12.1%; and cash and other net assets, 6.2%. By geography, assets were invested in securities of issuers based in Canada, 74.2%; and the United States, 25.8%.

The top five contributors to the Fund's performance were Power Financial Corporation, Walgreens Boots Alliance, Inc., Magna International Inc., The Goldman Sachs Group Inc. and Emera Inc. Walgreens was bought at an attractive price during a period of market concern regarding the future of traditional retailers. As those concerns abated, its share price performed well. Goldman Sachs was likewise bought during a period of negative publicity; as it has abated, the company's stock price has performed well. The other three companies benefitted from declining long-term interest rates and, in two cases, from substantial share repurchases.

The top five detractors to the Fund's performance were Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce, The Bank of Nova Scotia, The Toronto-Dominion Bank, Horizons Active Preferred Share ETF and BMO Laddered Preferred Share Index ETF. Three of those businesses are banks, whose share prices were adversely affected by market fears, that we believe are overblown, regarding the outlook for bank profits. The two preferred share ETFs are out of favour because recent declines in interest rates may have reduced investor expectations for the future dividends on rate reset preferred shares.

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

The decline in North American equity markets in late 2018 resulted in better equity market bargains. In response, the cash that had previously been raised in the Fund through equity sales was largely deployed. As equity markets recovered strongly in early 2019, the Fund has again raised some cash as it has become more difficult to find attractively valued securities of high quality, financially strong issuers. One group of companies that we believe is reasonably valued, offering attractive total return prospects and average downside risks, is the common shares of leading Canadian banks. As a result, at March 31, 2019, Canadian bank stocks accounted for 37.0% of the Fund's net asset value. The portfolio management team continues to believe that the Fund's focused portfolio of high quality companies positions the Fund well to meet its investment objective over the longer term.

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Manager is responsible for the day-to-day operation of and for providing investment management services to the Fund. The Manager receives a fee for providing these services. This is calculated daily based on the net asset value of the Fund and paid monthly. During the period ended March 31, 2019, the Manager received $74,934 in management fees from the Fund, net of applicable taxes (March 31, 2018: $61,335).

Any administrative services paid for or provided by the Manager are charged to the Fund and are grouped and presented by expense type in the statements of comprehensive income. Depending on their nature, some expenditures are allocated to the Fund based upon the net asset value or actual costs incurred. During the period ended March 31, 2019, the Manager was reimbursed $26,481 for operating expenses incurred on behalf of the Fund, including amounts paid to affiliates, net of applicable taxes (March 31, 2018: $23,365). The Manager absorbed $29,700 of operating expenses during the period ended March 31, 2019, net of applicable taxes (March 31, 2018: $25,860).

Affiliates of the Manager provide administrative services associated with the day-to-day operations of the Fund. These affiliates of the Manager were reimbursed $246 during the period ended March 31, 2019 by the Fund for such services (March 31, 2018: $661).

The Manager and/or its affiliates and key management personnel of the Manager and their family (collectively referred to as Related Parties) may invest in units of the Fund from time to time in the normal course of business. Transactions to purchase or redeem units are made at net asset value per unit. Standing instructions from the independent review committee were not required or obtained for such transactions. As at March 31, 2019, Related Parties owned 212 shares of the Fund (March 31, 2018: 306).

The Board of Directors of the Manager is responsible for reviewing and approving the financial statements and overseeing management's performance of its financial reporting responsibilities.

Past Performance

The past performance information shown in this section is calculated using the net asset value per unit and assumes that all distributions made by the investment fund in the periods shown were reinvested in additional securities of the investment fund. The past performance information does not take into account sales, redemptions, distribution or other optional charges or income taxes payable by the unitholder that would have reduced returns or performance. Investment funds are not guaranteed, their values change frequently and past performance may not be repeated.

Year-By-Year Returns

The following bar charts show the performance of each series of the Fund for each of the financial years shown and for the six-month period ended March 31, 2019. The charts show in percentage terms how an investment made on the first day of each financial year would have increased or decreased by the last day of each financial year.

Explanatory Notes

1. The information for March 31, 2019 is derived from the Fund's unaudited interim financial statements. For the remaining periods, the information is derived from the Fund's audited annual financial statements prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards.
2. Net assets and distributions are based on the actual number of units outstanding at the relevant time. The increase/decrease from operations is based on the weighted daily average number of units outstanding over the financial period.
3. Distributions are paid out in cash/reinvested in additional units of the Fund, or both.
4. This is not a reconciliation of the beginning and ending net assets per unit.
5. The management expense ratio (MER) is based on total expenses (excluding foreign withholding taxes, commissions and other portfolio transaction costs but including management fee distributions paid to certain unitholders in the form of additional units) for the stated period and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period. The Manager may absorb certain expenses otherwise payable by the Fund. The amount of expenses absorbed is determined annually at the discretion of the Manager.

The Fund may hold investments in exchange traded funds (ETFs). The MER is calculated taking into consideration the expenses of the Fund allocated to the series including expenses indirectly attributable to its investment in the ETFs divided by the average daily NAV of the series of the Fund during the period.

6. The trading expense ratio (TER) represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of the daily average net asset value of the Fund.

The TER is calculated taking into consideration the costs attributable to its investment in ETFs.

7. The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to a fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher a fund's portfolio turnover rate in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by the fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the period. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a fund.

Portfolio turnover rate is calculated based on the lesser of the cumulative cost of purchases or cumulative proceeds of sales divided by the average market value of the portfolio, excluding short-term investments.
